

Clarksville Chronicle.

J. S. NEBLETT, Local Editor.
J. A. GRANT, Local Editor.

CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE, OCTOBER 27, 1865.

Positive Notice.—All persons indebted to the firm of NEBLETT & GRANT, before the war, are respectfully, but positively, notified that unless they come forward in a short time and make settlement, they will find their accounts in the hands of an officer.

To Advertisers.—All advertisements to be inserted in the Chronicle for less than six months, must be paid for when handed in.

Job Work must be paid for when delivered.

These rules will be strictly adhered to.

Mr. James E. Myles will preach in the Christian Church to-night, Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

We are pleased to learn that some steps are being taken towards the rebuilding of the upper Red River Bridge. The County Court, on last Monday, appointed a committee of two—R. W. Humphreys and Geo. W. Hampton—to confer with the Mayor and Aldermen on this subject, and to apply, through our Representatives to the Legislature for the necessary authority to let the building of the bridge on certain conditions, if we are correctly informed, are that it shall be a toll bridge for thirty years—the toll to pay for building and keeping in repair.

We see that a Nashville and Cincinnati Packet Company, has been formed, with Mr. Jas. W. Gaff, as President, and Capt. James S. Wise, General Superintendent. The Company has purchased the Steamers Rowena, Rebecca, Emma, Floyd, and Havana, and they will commence running with the first rise of the river. We do not see that our town has any part or lot in the enterprise, but hope the boats will call, occasionally, and rest awhile.

We are authorized to state that there will be a Government sale, at this place, in a very short time. A large amount of valuable property will be offered—embracing horses, mules, wagons, ambulances, harnesses, machinery, wood, coal, lumber, &c., &c. Next week, we will publish the advertisement, to which our readers can refer for full particulars of time, place, and items.

SOLD.—We understand that Pindexter & Pollard have sold Trice's Landing Warehouse, to Crenshaw, Richards, & Co., for the sum of twenty five thousand dollars—possession to be given on the first of next month. This property was very valuable before the war, and if we can ever get up a reliable system of labor, it will be more valuable than ever.

SMALL "TATERS" THANKFULLY RECEIVED, AND LARGE IN PROPORTION.—We return thanks to Mr. Goodlett Brown, Mr. Jesse T. Harris, and Mr. George Warfield, all of this county, for specimens of their sweet potato crop—the average weight of said specimens being seven and a half pounds. So nearly equal are the samples in weight and quality that it would take a committee on vegetables to determine which of the three producers is entitled to the premium.

The Statements of the Home Insurance Company, of New York, and the Arctic Fire Insurance Company, of New York, are published in our issue to-day. These Companies are first class, managed by liberal-minded merchants of New York City. Their business here is confined to D. N. Kennedy, Agent, who has long and large experience in underwriting, and has paid a large amount of losses to this community and always to the satisfaction of policy holders.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. O. C. Rhea proposes to resuscitate the Russellville Herald, and believe there is public spirit enough in his town and county to enable him to do so. The Herald was always a good paper, and the business prosperity to which it contributed, in times past, demand its revival. We hope to see a number of it on our table, in a week or two.

See the card of Cobb and Tapscott, Engineers, Surveyors and Architects. We can recommend them as skillful in their profession, and as reliable and high-toned gentlemen.

LIVERY STABLES.—We understand that Mr. Sam. F. Allen is now associated with his brother George, in the Livery Stable, on Franklin street. They are both qualified to conduct the business in the best style, and will keep the best saddle and harness horses that can be had in the country, together with good Hack, Carriages, buggies, and—and vehicles. Call and try them.

F. Mehlhop & Co., have just received a choice lot of Fresh Oysters, direct from Baltimore, and have excellent cooks to serve them up in any style desired. Call at their stand on Franklin street, and try them.

We must return our thanks to Mr. John R. Martin for another sample of his sorghum molasses, better even than the first, and the best we ever saw. He is selling it at a dollar per gallon, and his losses, by a last winter's raid, ought to secure him purchasers for all he can make. Honest industry should always be rewarded, and when it is struggling against adversity, calls for both sympathy and patronage.

Mr. Charley Gilliam, in the front part of the Post-office, keeps on hand late papers from various quarters. He has also an assortment of books for sale, and will send forward orders for such as persons may desire to purchase through him. He is a clever and accommodating young man and ought to be patronized.

Mattill & Bro. have removed to the old stand of Rice & Moore, lately occupied by L. Straus, where they will keep a first class Dry Goods establishment. See their advertisement on first page.

Mr. Lindley has retired from the firm of Hodgson & Lindley, and is succeeded by our friend, J. Hodgson—the name of the firm will now be Hodgson & Bro. We bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

Chapman Ferguson was executed at Nashville, on Friday last, in the presence of about three hundred witnesses besides the military. The details of the affair are too voluminous for our space. Chapman confessed to a great many of the charges preferred against him, but alleged that he killed the men in regular battles or in self-defense. He said that the "surrender" was a prisoner of war, and was not fairly dealt with, that he was pre-judged that he had lived in good rebel would die a good rebel, and earnestly desired to be buried in good rebel soil. His wife and daughter were with him on the day of his execution, and the passing scene was very affecting. He is said to have died bravely, evincing no sign of fear; his only regret being that he left his wife and child unprotected.

The PARADE presented by the ladies of this city, on Wednesday night, for the benefit of the Pastor of the Methodist Church, attracted a large, fashionable and appreciative audience. The performances were what the performances of the Clarksville ladies always are—elegant, exquisite, brilliant—both in conception and execution. The pictures were excellent. The scenery was highly appropriate, yet, at the same time, very beautiful. The fair actors were as lovely and as lovable as the Hours of Mahomet's Paradise, and the singing was superb. We would like to describe the performances in detail, as it is only by a full description that justice could be done, or an adequate idea conveyed to those who were not present of the exceeding beauty of the whole affair, but our space forbids. We were not present at the performance on Tuesday night, and can, therefore, only speak from hearsay, but from the tone of unmeasured praise, in which it is spoken of, we judge that it must have been very fine.

A DISPATCH to a Philadelphia paper says: the counsel of Jeff. Davis has expressed a desire that his client be accorded immediate trial. The desire comes from Davis, who, it is said, has declared he has no fears for the issue, and that therefore the Government will do him a great favor by arraigning him at the earliest possible moment. The recent favorable change in his every-day life was mainly the work of the President. At this hour he has almost everything he could ask save liberty itself, and the presence of his family.

New York, Oct. 24.—Gold steady throughout the morning, but moderated. Opened at 140 and closed at 140 1/2, at 12 o'clock to-day.

New York, Oct. 24, P. M.—Money made a shade easier at 7 per cent on call loans. Sterling dull and heavy at 108 1/2 @ 109 1/2. Gold is without change; opened at 146 1/2, advancing 1 1/2, and closing 148 1/2. Government stocks more steady.

DRAW STORE.—The undersigned has engaged to remain with Messrs. Finley & Stewart, and give his personal attention to the business, as in old times. He therefore would respectfully request his old friends and customers to continue their patronage with the new firm, where every effort will be made to give satisfaction. TOWNSEND A. THOMAS.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

LET those who have doubted the virtues of Bull's Cedron Bitters, if any such there be, read the following certificate from gentlemen well known in this community, and doubt no more.

Its general introduction into the army will save the lives of thousands of our soldiers.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 3, 1865.
We, the undersigned, have seen the good effects produced by the use of Dr. John Bull's Cedron Bitters in cases of general debility and prostration of the system, and believe its general use would prevent disease and relieve much suffering. Among our soldiers particularly would this be the case, especially those who are exposed to malarial influence in the southern climate.

LETTER LIST.—LETTERS REMAINING UNCLAIMED in the Post Office at Clarksville, Tenn., on 27th day of October, 1865.

To obtain any of these letters, the applicant must call for "Admission Ticket," give the date of this list, and pay two cents for advertisement.

If not called for within ONE MONTH, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Free delivery of letters by carriers, at the residences of owners, in cities and large towns, may be secured by observing the following rules:

"1. Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as the post-office and State.

"2. Head letters with the writer's post-office and State, street and number, sign them plainly with full name, and request that answers be directed accordingly.

"3. Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked, in the lower left-hand corner, with the word 'Transient.'

"4. Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

"5. A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, name, post office, and State, across the left-hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer.—Sec. 28, Law of 1863."
